AMERICAN NICKEL WORKS,

Camden, N. J., Dec 4 1889

Hon O C Bosbyshell
Supt. U. S. Mint Phila
Dear Sir

I have your letter of Dec 3d, and am somewhat surprised to hear that my delivery of a part of the coin blanks recently purchased from me by the Mint was entirely unexpected.

On my side I had supposed that the purchase implied an early delivery of all, and was disappointed at your request that I should suspend for the present further deliveries.

That request was however instantly complied with by a letter to the works stopping all shipments, and I am now at a loss to know why you should now think it necessary to tell me that "further deliveries, until further notice, will be refused".

Yours truly

Joseph Wharton
